Rocky Christmas

This year we spent Christmas in New York. In the morning me and my sister Lisi went to the toy shop to buy some Christmas presents for our cousins. Of course we bought some Christmas presents for our parents and grandparents too. Then we went home and decorated the dinner table. One hour later our guests came. Grandparents, uncle, aunt and cousins. Everybody was there. Lisi and I went out in the garden with our cousins to play in the snow with them. After that the food was ready and we went back. The food was great!

When everybody had finished eating the kids were told to leave the room, because Santa needed to come. A bell rang and we ran into the living room. Under the Christmas tree there were many presents, but one of them was very big. It was for me! I was terribly excited and opened the box. It contained a little puppy! I was soooo happy! He was absolutely cute! I named it Rocky.

One hour later everybody went home and I played with Rocky. Then we watched a movie and went to bed. It was the best Christmas ever!
