

December 18th, 2020 - Alissa's story

The Magic Christmas present

The day before Christmas was, for Izzie, the hardest day to go to bed because she was so excited about the presents she knew she would get. At midnight she woke up, her heart beating loudly. She stared at the ceiling and knew right away that she would not be able to go back to sleep. She tried her best to go to bed again but she couldn't drift off, she was just too excited!

Izzie decided to go downstairs and see what presents she would get. She knew it was sort of naughty, but she just couldn't wait. She crept downstairs and opened one of the colourful, beautifully wrapped presents with her name on it. As she looked at a t-shirt that she had wished for, she noticed that it was not the right one! Izzie started crying because it was supposed to be the same one as her best friends had.

She went to bed, sad. But the next day she came downstairs and saw that the present she had opened had been wrapped up again! She wanted to tell her mom about the T-shirt, but her mom said just open it up and then you will see the magic! As soon as she opened the present, she saw to her surprise that it was the right T-shirt! Izzie remembered when her mom said it's magic!

Written by Alissa Munczinski, edited by Daniel Jordan